STUDENT-ATHLETE AND COACH INTERVIEWS

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska women's tennis student-athletes and coaches should be directed to Savanna Hebbert (shebbert2@huskers.unl.edu) of the Nebraska Communications Office at least 24 hours in advance.

The best time for in-season interviews is before and after practice, which generally runs from 1:30-3:30 p.m. at the Dillon Tennis Center. With advance notice, telephone interviews can be arranged for other hours, depending on class and practice schedules. For interviews following competition, Nebraska student-athletes and coaches are generally available following a five-minute cooling-off period after the competition has concluded.

A HISTORY OF SUCCESS

Entering his 31st season as Nebraska women's tennis head coach, Scott Jacobson has had his Huskers consistently ranked among the top 75 teams nationally for nearly 20 years, while making regular NCAA Tournament appearances the past decade.

Jacobson owns 439 victories at the helm of the Huskers and has averaged more than 15 wins per season. Jacobson ranks 16th in wins among active NCAA head coaches. Jacobson has been laying the foundation for the Nebraska program brick by brick since his first season in 1991-92, his program has been defined by consistent success.

2013 CONFERENCE TITLE SEASON

He led Nebraska to the Big Ten Conference regular-season title in 2013. From 2010 to 2013, Jacobson's Huskers produced the most successful stretch in school history, winning 20 or more matches for four straight seasons to advance to four consecutive NCAA tournaments. NU finished No. 16 in the final ITA rankings in both 2012 and 2013, including the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2013.

Since that Sweet 16 appearance, Jacobson has been building the women's tennis program back to a point of national prominence, aided by the addition of the world-class Sid and Hazel Dillon Tennis Center. Over the past four seasons, The Big Red averaged from 2016 to 2018 18 victories.

BUILDING A WINNER

In 2020, Jacobson guided Claire Reifeis to a unanimous first-team All-Big Ten selection following a 6-4 singles mark in the spring and a 5-3 doubles record. He also coached three freshmen to nine singles wins in Chloe Kuckelman (9-5), Ellie Kuckelman (9-2) and Kristina Novak (9-3).

With an 11-4 overall record and a 9-0 record at home, the Huskers were confident before the season was cut short due to COVID. Nebraska landed at No. 51 in the final 2020 ITA rankings, just a spot behind Florida International who NU defeated 4-0 early in the season.

JACOBSON GUIDES WEATHERHOLT

Mary Weatherholt, the greatest player in program history, capped her Husker career by finishing as the runner-up at the 2013 NCAA Singles Championship. Weatherholt was a first-team All-American in both singles and doubles play in 2013, as she teamed with fellow All-American Patricia Veresova to advance to the final eight in the doubles competition.

Off the court, Weatherholt claimed one of the NCAA's top overall honors as a winner of an NCAA Top Ten Award in 2014. She was the Big Ten Women's Tennis Athlete of the Year in both 2012 and 2013, and she was Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete of the Year in 2012-13. Weatherholt added a Big Ten Sportsmanship Award, while claiming the ITA Cissie Leary Sportsmanship Award, which is presented to the nation's top women's tennis student-athlete.

BREAKING RECORDS

The Huskers' record-breaking 2013 season followed on the heels of a 2012 campaign that featured a 24-5 overall record and a 9-2 Big Ten mark in Nebraska's first year in the conference.

Weatherholt, who returned to the court after suffering a knee injury as a sophomore in 2011, again led the Huskers along with Veresova, Weinstein, Janine Weinreich and senior Madeleine Geibert.

A three-time all-conference pick both athletically and academically, Geibert set the NU record with 181 combined wins before Weatherholt broke the record the following season. Jacobson earned 2012 Big Ten Co-Coach-of-the-Year honors after leading the Big Red to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

NEBRASKA'S BIG 12 FAREWELL

In Nebraska's final season in the Big 12 Conference in 2011, Jacobson led the Huskers to a 20-win campaign despite dealing with the loss of Weatherholt to a knee injury early in the fall. NU finished fourth in a loaded Big 12, producing a 7-4 conference mark while qualifying for their third straight NCAA Tournament.

Geibert and Veresova both earned All-Big 12 honors. Jacobson capped his association with the Big 12 Conference by leading seven Huskers to Big 12 individual titles and 26 first-team All-Big 12 awards.

COACH OF THE YEAR

In 2010, Nebraska posted the first 20-win campaign in school history, finishing with a 22-6 overall record that included a 9-2 Big 12 mark and a third-place conference finish. Jacobson was named Big 12 Coach of the Year for the second time, while leading the Huskers to their first-ever NCAA Tournament victory with a first-round win over Illinois.

Jacobson, who led Nebraska to its first NCAA Tournament with an 18-4 record and a 9-2 Big 12 mark in 2005, was also the 2005 Big 12 Coach of the Year. The 2006 team added a 17-10 overall record while featuring Big 12 Freshman-of-the-Year Kim Hartmann on its way to a second straight NCAA Tournament bid.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

While Nebraska has seen its most success on the court under Jacobson, the veteran head coach also emphasizes excellence in the classroom and in the community.

During his career, Jacobson's Huskers have earned numerous academic all-conference accolades. Jacobson also guided the athletic career of two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American Imke Reimers.

The women's tennis team also earned the Herman Award four straight years from 2011 to 2014 and most recently from 2018 to 2020. The 2020 squad earned a cumulative GPA of 3.686.

JACOBSON'S COACHING PHILOSOPHY

"By helping our student-athletes develop the values of dedication, cooperation, compassion and the ability to handle adversity with courage, we help them grow as both tennis players and as people. Through a belief in one another and a positive approach to competition, we can build meaningful relationships off the tennis court and continue a winning tradition on it."

•6 Cissie Leary ITA Northwest Region Sportsmansip Award winners
•4 ITA Northwest Region Arthur Ashe Award recipients

COLLEGE COACHING

Lisa Hart joined the Nebraska women's tennis program as an associate head coach in July of 2021.

Prior to joining the Husker coaching staff, Hart served as the head coach at Washington State for 18 seasons from 2003 to 2021. She led the Cougars to 246 wins and NCAA Championship appearances in 2008, 2012 and 2019. Hart has also coached four players who have reached the NCAA Singles Championships.

During her time at WSU, Hart's teams saw success in the classroom and put an emphasis on community service. In each of the last 14 seasons, the Cougars received the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) All-Academic team award. Hart was also a six-time winner of the Community Service Award by the United States Tennis Association and ITA for her significant contributions in developing community-based tennis programs and was named the national winner of the USTA/ITA Community Outreach Award in 2008.

On the court, Hart's teams posted 12 or more victories in 13 seasons with the Cougars, including a program-record 21 victories in 2018. The following season was also successful with the team reaching the NCAA Championships for the seventh time in program history. Additionally, both a singles player and doubles team made it to the tournament for the first time since 2002.

In 2012, Hart led the Cougars to a 19-7 record, tying for the most wins in school history at the time, and a second-round showing at the NCAA Women's Tennis Championship. That season included six wins over nationally ranked teams, a first-round victory over No. 36 Florida State at the NCAA Championship, and a weekend sweep over No. 26 Arizona and No. 27 Arizona State.

Hart capped the 2012 season by being named the Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year, the 2012 Intercollegiate Tennis Association Northwest Region Coach of the Year and the 2012 United States Professional Tennis Association/Pacific Northwest Division College Coach of the Year.

During her WSU tenure, Hart has mentored four players to the NCAA Singles Championships along with one doubles team. Hart coached 39 players who received ITA All-Academic awards, two CoSIDA First Team All-District VIII recipients, seven Cissie Leary Sportsmanship and six Arthur Ashe Leadership and Sportsmanship award winners.

HEAD, WOMEN'S TENNIS -- 2003-2021
VIRGINIA TECH
ASSISTANT, WOMEN'S TENNIS --
UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA
ASSISTANT, WOMEN'S TENNIS -- 2021

COLLEGE PLAYING DAYS

Hart was a tennis standout at Nebraska, finishing her career as one of the most successful women's tennis players in school history. She was the 1995 Big Eight Freshman of the Year, recorded 74 career singles victories, and won the Big 12 Conference No. 2 singles title as a senior in 1998.

Her dedication and excellence on the court was matched in the classroom as Hart was a three-time academic all-conference selection, earning first-team academic All-Big 12 honors as a senior. She was selected by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association as the Central Region's Cissie Leary Sportsmanship Award winner. As a senior, Hart also received the Arthur Ashe Sportsmanship and Leadership Award.

PERSONAL

A native of Sunnyside, Wash., Hart had an outstanding high school career at Sunnyside High where she was a three-time State champion. She also earned All-America honors as a high school sophomore. Hart earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Nebraska and also holds a master's degree in education with an emphasis in physical education and sports studies from Nebraska.

Hart has one daughter, Mary Beth and one son, Paul.

HART ON NEBRASKA

"I would like to thank Scott Jacobson and Keith Zimmer for giving me the opportunity to coach at the University of Nebraska. Coach Jacobson is a proven winner on the court, deeply cares about his players and is just a wonderful person. Being able to coach at my alma mater with the coach I played for is a dream come true. I am excited and eager to help our players have a positive and transformational student-athlete experience and cannot wait to get started."

TED CARTER

University of Nebraska President

Ted Carter became the eighth president of the University of Nebraska on Jan. 1, 2020, following a national search by the Board of Regents.

As president, Carter leads a four-campus university system that enrolls nearly 52,000 students and employs 16,000 faculty and staff on campuses in Lincoln, Omaha and Kearney, plus academic divisions and research and extension centers across the state. He serves as chief spokesman and chief executive officer for the system, which operates on a $2.8 billion annual budget and includes a flagship Big Ten institution, a world-renowned academic health sciences center, Division I athletics programs, and preeminent institutes focused on water and agriculture, national security and defense, infectious disease and early childhood education.

Carter brought with him a distinguished record in education, partnerships and military service, having come to Nebraska from the U.S. Naval Academy, his alma mater, where he served as superintendent. Under his leadership, the Naval Academy achieved a No. 1 national ranking and new records in student success and diversity. Carter previously was president of the U.S. Naval War College in Newport, R.I. A retired Vice Admiral with 38 years of service, Carter has logged more than 6,300 flying hours and holds the American record for carrier-arrested landings.

In his first year at the University of Nebraska – faced with the unexpected and unprecedented challenges presented by COVID-19 – Carter has led with a focus on the land-grant priorities of access and opportunity for students and families. He launched the Nebraska Promise, a financial aid program guaranteeing free tuition for low- and middle-income Nebraskans, and implemented a multi-year budget plan that included a two-year, across-the-board tuition freeze. The result was system-wide growth in enrollment, including record gains among underrepresented students.

Carter oversaw the awarding of a $92 million federal contract for the university's National Strategic Research Institute, one of only 14 University-Affiliated Research Centers in the country conducting exclusive research for the Department of Defense. During Carter's tenure, the NU system has been ranked among the world's top 100 institutions for earning research patents, the Omaha campus was selected as the home for a new federal counterterrorism research center, the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources launched a new effort focused on rural vitality, and the medical center opened an education, training and preparedness facility that positions Nebraska as the world leader in the fight against infectious disease.

Carter serves as the chair of the Daugherty Water for Food Global Institute's Board of Directors. He is a board member for the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce, the Nebraska State Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Naval Historical Foundation and the Naval Aviation Museum Foundation. Carter is also a member of the Aspen Institute's Higher Education Working Group and the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities' Council of Presidents. He is an ex-officio member on the board of the University of Nebraska Foundation, the philanthropic partner of the university system that has a $1.7 billion endowment.

Carter earned his bachelor's degree in physics and oceanography from the U.S. Naval Academy, where he played hockey and served as team captain. He is a graduate of the Navy Fighter Weapons School (Top Gun) and holds educational credentials from the Navy Nuclear Power School, the U.S. Air Force Air War College, the Naval War College and the Armed Forces Staff College. Carter's military career includes service for the Carrier Strike Group Twelve, in which he commanded 20 ships, two nuclear-powered aircraft carriers, and two carrier wings that were deployed to Afghanistan and the Arabian Gulf.

The son of an English teacher, Carter was raised in the rural, one-high school town of Burrillville, R.I. He and his wife, Lynda, live in Lincoln and have two adult children, Brittany and Christopher.

A veteran administrator and College Football Hall of Famer, Trev Alberts was named Vice Chancellor for Athletics at the University of Nebraska on July 14, 2021. Alberts returned to his alma mater after spending 12 years at Nebraska-Omaha, guiding the program through a successful transition to the Division I level.

Alberts' tenure leading UNO athletics was marked by successes in competition and in academics; by transitioning the university's athletic programs to NCAA Division I in 2011; and by establishing new homes for many UNO athletics teams, including Baxter Arena, the Maverick Park baseball/softball complex and the soccer pitch at Caniglia Field.

Alberts took the bold step in announcing that Omaha would reclassify from Division II to Division I in all sports in 2011 and simultaneously securing conference affiliation with the Summit League for all of the department's then-Division II programs. His vision for UNO's reclassifying teams was demonstrated even before the four-year transition period had ended. The Omaha baseball team won back-to-back Summit League regular-season championships in 2013 and 2014, while the men's basketball team made its first Division I postseason appearance in 2014 with a berth in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

During UNO's time in the Division I ranks under Alberts tenure, the Mavericks had six teams and four student-athletes qualify for the NCAA Tournament, including hockey advancing to the Frozen Four in 2015 and men's soccer reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament in the spring of 2021. He also expanded opportunities, adding men's golf and men's soccer in 2011 and Omaha will begin a men's swimming and diving program in 2021-22.

Throughout his tenure in Omaha, Alberts was focused on enhancing the student-athlete experience, including the construction and staffing of the Hamilton Academic Excellence Room and the development of the Ethel S. Abbott Student-Athlete Development Wing. Those efforts paid off in Nebraska-Omaha student-athletes posting consistent collective semester grade point averages above 3.3 for 18 consecutive semesters, including at least a 3.5 in each of his final three semesters.

The facilities around Omaha Athletics received a major uplift during his tenure. Maverick Park opened in March of 2021 to rave reviews as the home to the Mavericks' baseball and softball programs. Funding for the complex, which includes a 1,500-seat baseball facility and a 650-seat softball facility, were raised privately and provided both programs a permanent on-campus home for the first time.

Another crowning achievement was the opening of Baxter Arena in 2015. Alberts directed efforts to secure community support and funding to build the on-campus arena, which allowed the nationally prominent hockey program to play on campus and also serve as the home of the men's and women's basketball and volleyball programs. Caniglia Field underwent renovations in 2012, making it one of the finest collegiate soccer facilities in the country, highlighted by a FIFA 2-star rated playing surface and one of the largest LED videoboards in a soccer-only college facility.

Alberts' work on behalf of hockey, UNO's established Division I sport, also paid dividends. He successfully guided the Mavericks into the new National Collegiate Hockey Conference in 2013-14. The following year, Omaha reached the 2015 NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition, Alberts and his team led Omaha Athletics into a partnership with Learfield, a national leader in the marketing of collegiate athletics, and developed Omaha Sports Properties. As the exclusive corporate sponsorship sales unit for UNO Athletics, Omaha Sports Properties further enhanced revenue and increased brand prominence locally, regionally and nationally.

As part of UNO's reclassification to Division I, Alberts oversaw the rebranding of UNO athletics with new primary and secondary logos and a greater focus on strengthening the Maverick brand both regionally and nationally.

As a student-athlete, Alberts was an All-American on and off the football field as a Husker Blackshirt. He was Nebraska's first Butkus Award winner in 1993, helping Coach Tom Osborne's Huskers to an undefeated regular season and an Orange Bowl appearance against Florida State. A first-team All-American by every major publication in 1993, he was also the Football News National Defensive Player of the Year, the Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year, and the Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year. His No. 34 jersey was retired at the 1994 Red-White Spring Game. In 2015, he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame.

Off the field, Alberts earned the NCAA's highest honor, The Today's Top Six Award. A three-time academic All-Big Eight honoree, he was a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1993. He graduated from Nebraska before his senior season.

Alberts was the fifth pick in the 1994 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts and played

KEITH ZIMMER

Senior Associate A.D. Life Skills/Tennis Administrator

Keith Zimmer enters his 34th year at Nebraska directing the Life Skills and Enrichment program while also serving as sports administrator for women's basketball, softball, men's tennis and women's tennis.

A member of the Big Ten Sports Management Committee, Zimmer works closely with the College of Business to assist with the administration of the Master's in Intercollegiate Athletic Administration program. Since 2015, Nebraska Life Skills implemented the Post Eligibility Scholarship provided to Huskers who have lettered, graduated and exhausted eligibility at Nebraska. Zimmer hired Nebraska Athletics Diversity and Inclusion Director DaWon Baker and together numerous initiatives have been implemented within campus and the community promoting respect acceptance and unity.

Additional critical components of Nebraska Life Skills includes individual student-athlete career meetings, required 4 year tiered proactive education, community outreach, postgraduate scholarship awards life after sports transition and the offering of four leadership organizations. The N-Vest mentoring group, Inner Circle, N-Volved and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee further develop leadership qualities of more than 150 student-athletes annually. Zimmer also assists with the direction of Nebraska's annual student-athlete achievement event, "A Night at the Lied." Zimmer is the Life Skills sport contact for football, volleyball, softball, swimming and diving, men's tennis and women's tennis.

Zimmer, who worked in Nebraska's Academic Services area from 1987 to 2006, while pioneering Nebraska's Life Skills program, is regarded as a national leader in the life skills area. He received one of the top honors in college athletics, being selected as the Life Skills Administrator of the Year and has also received the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students and is an honorary member of both Golden Key National Honor Society and Mortar Board.

Zimmer earned his bachelor's degree at Wayne State College and his master's in education from Springfield (Mass.) College. Zimmer and his wife

MARQUITA ARMSTEAD

Deputy Associate A.D./SWA

Marquita Armstead was hired as Nebraska's Executive Associate Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator on Dec. 16, 2021, and she officially began her duties on Feb. 1, 2022. Armstead came to Nebraska from the University of South Florida, where she served in a similar role.

Armstead was a member of the South Florida athletics administration from March of 2016 to January of 2022. She originally joined USF as Associate Athletic Director for Compliance, before being elevated to Senior Associate Director of Athletics/Senior Woman Administrator in August of 2017.

In her role with the Bulls, Armstead serves as the sport administrator for men's and women's basketball, and had previous sport oversight of softball, men's soccer, women's tennis and as the secondary sport administrator for football. Armstead also oversees several USF student-athlete support departments, including academic services, student-athlete enhancement, sports medicine, nutrition, sport psychology, student rights and responsibilities and Title IX.

In her position with the Huskers, Armstead has sport supervision for men's basketball and volleyball. She will be a member of the Big Ten Sport Management Council, and has oversight of athletic medicine, sports psychology, the athletic performance lab (NAPL), strength and conditioning, performance nutrition, Title IX and gender equity.

In addition to her work at USF, Armstead has a strong athletic administration background at four other schools. Before her time at South Florida, Armstead worked at Georgia Tech from 2012 to 2016, where she served as Director of Compliance for her final three years in Atlanta. Prior to Georgia Tech, Armstead was the Director of Compliance at the University of Tennessee Chattanooga for six years. She also served internships in compliance at Mississippi State and Ohio University.

Armstead earned her bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 2005 and earned a master's of sports administration from the school in 2006. She received a Master of Business Administration degree from Tennessee Chattanooga in 2013 and is a 2012 NCAA Leadership Institute graduate. Armstead is married to Demetric Armstead and the couple has a son, Braylon.

RONNIE GREEN

University of Nebraska-Lincoln Chancellor (Sixth Year) Virginia Tech (1983)

Dr. Ronnie D. Green is Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Nebraska's flagship, Land-Grant and Big Ten institution, where he oversees an enrollment of over 25,000 students and 6,000 faculty and staff.

He received bachelor's and master's degrees in animal science from Virginia Tech and Colorado State University, respectively. His doctoral program was completed jointly at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the USDA-ARS U.S. Meat Animal Research Center in animal breeding and genetics.

Green has served on the animal science faculties of Texas Tech University and Colorado State University, and as the national program leader for animal production research for the USDA's Agricultural Research Service and executive secretary of the White House's interagency working group on animal genomics within the National Science and Technology Council. Prior to returning to NU, Green served as a global executive for Pfizer Animal Health's animal genomics business.

Green has published 130 refereed publications and abstracts, nine book chapters and 56 invited symposia papers; and has delivered invited presentations in 43 U.S. states and 21 countries around the world. He is a past-president of both the American Society of Animal Science (ASAS) and the National Block and Bridle Club and has served in a number of leadership positions for the U.S. Beef Improvement Federation, National Cattlemen's Beef Association, National Pork Board, the National Research Council of the National Academy of Sciences, the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities, and Alpha Gamma Rho national fraternity. He currently is a member of a number of boards including the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors, Neogen Corporation, and Supporters of Agricultural Research, and was recently named to the Presidential Forum of the NCAA representing the Big Ten Conference, and an inaugural member of the NCAA Division I Board Infractions Process Committee. He was named a fellow of ASAS in 2014 and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in 2015. In 2017 Dr. Green was honored with the American Society of Animal Science's Morrison Award, the highest international academic recognition for an animal scientist.

Ronnie and his wife Jane, a double UNL alumna, are the proud parents of four children – Justin, Nate, Kelli and Regan Green – all UNL graduates – and one granddaughter, Charlotte.

SCOTT M. FUESS JR.

Faculty Athletic Representative (Second Year) Delaware (1982)

Scott M. Fuess Jr. was named the University of Nebraska-Lincoln faculty athletics representative on Feb. 21, 2020.

As faculty athletics representative, Fuess serves as a liaison between the Office of the Chancellor and Athletic Department. Areas of focus in the role include the welfare of student-athletes, maintaining the positive relationship between athletics and faculty, NCAA compliance, developing and responding to NCAA legislative proposals and representing the university at related NCAA and Big Ten Conference meetings.

The half-time position - which was restructured to an expected term of five years - reports directly to Chancellor Ronnie Green and consults with the Athletic Director. The representative splits academic year time equally between academic responsibilities and faculty representative duties.

Fuess, the Steinhart Distinguished Professor of Business and former chair of the College of Business' economics department, has worked at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln since 1986. He serves on the Faculty Senate's Intercollegiate Athletics Committee, having chaired the committee for 2018-19 and a sub-committee in 2017-18.

In August 2018, Fuess was named director of the university's cross-disciplinary master's degree program that offers a specialization in intercollegiate athletics administration. The program - which has been completed by 48 Huskers - is built on MBA coursework, allowing students to earn hands-on experiences through Nebraska Athletics, industry professionals, other universities and alumni.

Fuess earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Delaware, as well as master's and doctoral degrees from Purdue University. His research interests revolve around issues of economics, primarily in labor, collegiate athletics and Japan.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Kevin Warren
Commissioner

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse over the last four years. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century. In January 2014, Michigan State defeated Stanford in the 100th Rose Bowl Game.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of six men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, and current commissioner Kevin Warren in 2020.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 1,800 events across all platforms each year. BTN is in almost 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada via the nation's major video providers and more than 300 additional video providers across the country. BTN is also available through the majority of OTT providers, and via the Fox Sports App, which delivers live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. In addition, the BTN+ platform streams hundreds of events each season.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gave the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition. On June 17, 2015, the conference announced that Johns Hopkins was accepted as a sport affiliate member for women's lacrosse beginning with the 2016-17 academic year. On March 23, 2016, the conference announced that Notre Dame would be joining the Big Ten for men's ice hockey beginning with the 2017-18 academic year.

Since opening in the fall of 2013, the Big Ten conference center hosts more than 300 meetings annually for member institutions, Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly CIC) related committees and coaches' groups. The headquarters also features an interactive digital museum — the Big Ten Experience — which brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life. For more information on the Big Ten Experience, go to bigten.org.

In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C.

Warren and his staff work to meet the educational needs of student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 27 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 2,000 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel, and remains a vital resource for media and fans seeking information on the Big Ten.

During his first year, Warren helped spark a number of groundbreaking conference initiatives. On March 7, 2020, in advance of the rising tide of the COVID-19 pandemic, the conference partnered with all 14 of its member institutions to create the Big Ten Task Force for Emerging Infectious Diseases. This group was formed to provide counsel and sound medical advice to ensure the health, safety and wellness of the Big Ten's students, coaches, administrators and fans. It includes representatives from a diverse set of disciplines across campus healthcare systems and schools of public health and their input serves as a resource for the conference in making important decisions based on information received from local, state and federal health departments, along with the NCAA.

Less than two months later on May 4, 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members Johns Hopkins (men's and women's lacrosse) and Notre Dame (men's ice hockey). The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

Following the death of Minneapolis resident George Floyd, Warren penned an open letter on June 1, 2020, announcing the formation of what became known as the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. The United States Library of Congress selected Warren's open letter for inclusion in its historic collection.

A product of the conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.

More than 125 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

2021-22: QUOTING COACH JACOBSON

"Jess is a tremendouslu hard worker and a strong baseliner. Another lefty that when serving wreaks havoc on her opponents. She has a strong backhand, a solid net game, and a great overhead. Jess continues to grow and through her work ethic is a tremendous role model for the program."

2020-21: JUNIOR

In her third year playing for the Huskers, Jessica Aragon saw the court during the fall and spring seasons where she recorded singles victories in both. In the fall, she finished with a 2-2 record in singles play, which tied her for third in singles victories. In the spring, Aragon went 1-1 in singles play with a convincing win over Danielle Bauers of Iowa (6-4, 6-0) at the Wisconsin Invitational.

Off the court, Aragon was awarded the Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Award and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll for her academic success in the fall semester.

2019-20: SOPHOMORE

Aragon won five singles matches and six doubles matches during her sophomore season, which was shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic. She went 5-5 overall in singles play, with a 3-3 record during the spring which included victories at the No. 3, 4 and 6 spots. In doubles play, Aragon teamed with four different partners to post a 6-3 record, including a 5-2 mark during the spring. She paired with Hayley Haakenstad to win three of the duo's four spring doubles matches.

2018-19: FRESHMAN

Aragon started off her first season at NU with a stellar performance at the Minnesota Invitational, Sept. 21-23. She went a perfect 3-0 in Singles Flight D, capping off her weekend with a victory in the championship over River Hart (MINN) 6-2, 6-4. Aragon and doubles partner Vasanti Shinde went 3-3 together in their first tournament.

At the ITA Regionals in Iowa City, Iowa, Aragon won her first singles match in the 128-player bracket, defeating Riddhi Sharma (UMKC) 6-4, 2-6, (7-5). Aragon fell in the round of 64 to end her first fall season with a 4-1 singles record. In doubles play, Aragon and Shinde won their first three matches to advance to the quarterfinals in the 64-team doubles bracket. They lost to Martina Okalova/Vera Ploner (Tulsa) 8-2 in the quarterfinals.

In the spring season, Aragon finished 10-12 in singles action, including a 4-7 record in Big Ten play. She had her most success playing out of the No. 5 singles spot, where she was 9-9 on the year. She finished 13-10 (6-4 Big Ten) in doubles play with Vasanti Shinde and Claire Reifeis, including a 13-6 mark paired with Reifeis.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Aragon, a five-star recruit out of Plano, Texas, was recruited by the Huskers during her time at Dent Tennis Academy. Located in Keller, Texas, Dent serves as a full-time boarding school and training facility for elite tennis players. Under the tutelage of Taylor, Phil and Jenny Dent, who were each ranked as top 50 players in the world at one point, Aragon became one of the most highly sought after players in Texas.

She placed third in the 2017 Texas Girls Grandslam 18's singles division and earned first place in doubles. Aragon won the Austin ITF doubles division in 2016 and finished second at the 2017 Silver Ball Girls 18's Winter Nationals in doubles.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Joseph and Judy Aragon, Jessica was born on June 13, 1999 in Plano, Texas. She has two brothers, Joseph and Jacob, and one sister, Amanda. She chose Nebraska over Colorado, SMU, Oklahoma and Baylor among others. Aragon is a finance major and a six-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection. She earned a prestigious Sam Foltz 27 Hero Leadership Award in 2020. She is also a three-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

WHY SHE CHOSE NEBRASKA

"I really loved the team chemistry and coaching staff. I was also really impressed with the school and all the resources it has to offer."

2021-22:QUOTING COACH JACOBSON

"Isa is a crafty baseliner with a wicked drop shot. She has the rare ability to slice off her backhand side, which allows her to attack through transition, or disguise from that same area of the court with her drop shot. Isa is a tremendous competitor who cares deeply for the concept of "team first". Her net game and doubles game continue to grow as well as her shot selection."

Isabel Adrover Gallego saw extensive action in her sophomore season, competing in 25 singles matches, the most of any Husker. She posted a 12-13 overall singles record and 6-12 record in the spring, tying for third on the team in overall wins. She competed at two different singles positions, posting a 4-9 mark at No. 2 and a 1-1 record at No.3. In doubles actions, Adrover Gallego competed with Claire Reifeis in all of her 17 matches, posting an 11-6 record.

The Mallorca, Spain native had an outstanding fall, recording a 6-1 singles record and becoming the second Husker of the season to capture an ITA Fall Circuit Title. In the November event, Adrover Gallego won her quaterfinal and semifinal matches to get her to the finals, where she defeated Denver's Anna Riedmiller, 6-7 (4), 6-2, 1-0 (10-8)

Off the court, Adrover was named to the 2021 Tom Osborne Citizenship Team and the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll for her academic success in the fall and spring semester.

2021-22: QUOTING COACH JACOBSON

"Chloe is a tremendously gifted athlete and as a result, continues to make great strides. As a lefty, her serve causes tremendous difficulties for returners. Her style of play allows her to attack when the opportunity persents itself, yet has the ability to be patient off the ground. Chloe has good hands at the net and a great overhead. She will help our program on both the singles court and the doubles court."

Coming off a dominant inaugural season, sophomore Chloe Kuckelman continued her success in the 2020-21 season. Kuckelman posted a 15-2 overall record in singles play and her total singles victories rank second on the team. She went 2-0 from the No. 4 spot in the lineup and had an impressive mark of 11-2 at the No. 5 position. In doubles action, Kuckelman became one of four Huskers with double digit wins, posting a 12-5 record and partnering with Hayley Haakenstad and Vivien Sandberg at the No. 2 and No. 3 positions.

Off the court, Kuckelman was named to the 2021 Tom Osborne Citizenship Team and the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll for her academic success in the fall and spring semester.

2019-20: FRESHMAN

Kuckelman won a team-best 27 combined matches during an impressive freshman season that was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In singles action, Kuckelman went 13-7 overall, tying Kristina Novak for the team lead with 13 wins. Kuckelman also tied for the team high in victories during the spring season, posting a 9-5 record while competing out of the No. 2 (1-0) No. 3 (4-2) and No. 4 (4-3) spots in the lineup. In doubles play, Kuckelman's 14 overall wins were the most on the team, while her 10 wins during the spring season tied for the team high. Chloe teamed up with her twin sister Ellie to post an 11-4 overall record, including an 8-3 mark in the spring, leading Nebraska in doubles victories. Chloe also paired up with three other teammates for doubles play, posting a 3-1 record in those four matches.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Lucy Loy joined the Huskers from Fishers, Ind. Previously, Loy played club tennis at Indianapolis Racquet Club for Coach Jamie Dieveney and competed for Fishers High School, under Coach Dave Heffern. A four-time letterwinner, Loy received all-state honorable mention in 2018, second-team all-state honors in 2019 and first-team all-state honors in 2021. Loy was a regional finalist in 2019 and a state semifinalist in 2021. On the club side, Loy was a Midwest level 2 and 3 doubles winner and a level 3 singles winner. In the classroom, Loy received the scholar athlete award, the national honors society award and dean's list recognition.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Rob and Cheryl Loy, Lucy was born on Dec. 29, 2002. She has two brothers, Will and Matt, and will be majoring in accounting and business.

WHY LUCY CHOSE NEBRASKA

"I visited and loved the team and the coaches. Everyone was very welcoming and seemed like they all got along well. The facilities were very nice, and Nebraska treats their athletes well. I hear all good things about Nebraska, and I'm excited for this opportunity."

CHAMPIONS IN ATHLETICS, ACADEMICS, LIFE

The Nebraska women's tennis program has established itself as a national contender. In 2013, the Huskers advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 and played host to the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time. It was Nebraska's sixth NCAA appearance in an eight-year span.

Coach Scott Jacobson is in his 31st season as the winningest coach in Nebraska tennis history. He helped 2013 All-American Mary Weatherholt to a second-place finish at the 2013 NCAA Singles Championship. Weatherholt added an NCAA Elite Eight finish alongside fellow 2013 All-American Patricia Veresova in doubles. Weatherholt also captured the 17th of Nebraska's NCAA-leading 18 NCAA Top Ten Award, after being named Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

Left: Mary Weatherholt set the all-time record for career wins at 208, the first and only women's player in Nebraska history to surpass the 200-win mark. Weatherholt was the 2013 NCAA Singles runner-up, 2013 NCAA/ITA All-American in both singles and doubles, Big Ten Women's Tennis Athlete-of-the-year in both 2012 and 2013 and earned the NCAA Top Ten Award for her performance on the court, in the classroom and community.

Right: Gitte Ostermann (top) was a three-time All-Big 12 pick and led NU to its first-ever NCAA Tournament team appearance in 2005. Imke Reimers (bottom) was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American at Nebraska and earned a prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship in 2008.
